Fraud Warning:
Certain states require specific state mandated fraud language to be included on all claims forms while other states use a generalized fraud stated. We have adopted the fraud warning language prescribed by the District of Columbia as its standard fraud statement. Unless otherwise noted below this statement shall be included on all claims forms, applications and enrollment forms.

District of Columbia Generic Warning:
It is a crime to provide false or misleading information to an insurer for the purpose of defrauding the insurer or any other person. Penalties include imprisonment and / or fines. In addition, an insurer may deny insurance benefits if false information materially related to a claim was provided by the applicant.

The following states have required us to use state specific language as follows:

California
For your protection California law requires the following to appear on this form:

Any person who knowingly presents false or fraudulent information to obtain or amend insurance coverage or to make a claim for payment of a loss is guilty of a crime and may be subject to fines and confinement in state prison.

Colorado
It is unlawful to knowingly provide false, incomplete, or misleading facts or information to an insurance company for the purpose of defrauding or attempting to defraud the company. Penalties may include imprisonment, fines, denial of insurance and civil damages.

Florida
Any person who knowingly and with intent in injure, defraud, or deceive any insurer files a statement of claim or an application containing any false, incomplete, or misleading information is guilty of a felony of the third degree.

New York
Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files an application for insurance or statement of claim containing any materially false information, or conceals for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact thereto, commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime and shall also be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed $5,000 and the stated value of the claim for each such violation.

Oklahoma
WARNING: Any person who knowingly, and with intent to injure, defraud or deceive any insurer, makes any claim for the proceeds of any insurance policy containing any false, incomplete or misleading information is guilty of a felony.

Pennsylvania
Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files a statement of claim containing any materially false information or conceals for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime and subjects such person to criminal and civil penalties.

Maryland/Oregon
Any person who, with intent to defraud or knowing that he is facilitating a fraud against an insurer submits an application or files a claim containing a false or deceptive statement may be guilty of insurance fraud.

Virginia
Any person who, with intent to defraud or knowing that he is facilitating a fraud against an insurer submits an application or files a claim containing a false or deceptive statement may have violated state law.

It is important to note that CHUBB North American Claims and the Accident & Health Division reserves its right to make changes to this language and may require additional fraud warnings incorporated onto the claim forms in the future.
